THE PUBLIC CREDIT.

Already European capitalists are becoming alarmed at the mere possibility of the election of Tilden and of the Democratic party getting control of the Government. The New York Times, of October 20, says: "There is nothing improbable in the report that foreign members of the funding syndicate confer with apprehension in their correspondence to the possible contingency of Democratic success and its effect upon the public credit;" and adds, "the report harmonizes so well with what was previously known upon the subject that cannot excite any reasonable surprise." It does, however, cause alarm. With a vast array of Southern claims pressing upon Congress, and only awaiting a change of government to secure their payment, the public credit under Democratic rule would fall even below what it was under President Buchanan, when a tax of twelve per cent. was exacted by capitalists on loans made to the Government to meet the ordinary expenses of his administration. In short the entire financial achievements of the Republican party would be overthrown. With the public credit destroyed there could be no more of the Government securities funded at 4½ per cent., or sold even at 6 or 7 per cent. The bonds now held abroad would be hastily returned to the United States for redemption or sale, and a wide spread financial crisis would follow, accompanied with disaster and ruin. "The industry and commerce of the country," as the Times remarks, "would stagger under the load. The funding process would be at an end for this generation and Government securities would be below par. And this, serious as it may be in itself, is not the worst. The "solid South" would press their own claims, and, being in control of the Government, would find means of obtaining payment as long as the people could be made to bear the imposition of taxes to meet the payment of those demands. The Treasury being thus exhausted, repudiation of the State debt, and finally, the National debt itself, would follow. In fact, wherever they have control now the work of State debt repudiation has already been commenced. Their treatment of the State debts of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia afford degrading evidence of the spirit of Democratic repudiation. "As a body," says the New York Times, and their own acts corroborate the statement, "the Southern Democrats are repudiators of all obligations or claims not held by themselves."

OUR DUTY.

The Washington Republic reminds us of our duty. It says "at no time in the history of the Republic has the necessity for a solid front been more imperative on the Republican party than at present. There should be no division in the ranks in the face of the onerous foe. The candidates regularly nominated by conventions ought to receive earnest and hearty support. But above all we must keep intact in one faith and support for the national ticket. The results of a possible defeat should nerve every true man. It is not merely the Presidency at stake; it is the control of the Government, and not merely that either. The question presented is, are you willing to turn over the Government to men who fought four years for its destruction? Is it possible that by the popular vote we can place at the very head of the Government a man who unblushingly defrauded it of money at a time when it most needed material strength? Tilden is just the man. Is it possible that we shall constitute as one of the co-ordinate branches of this Government a man who is known as a railroad wrecker—a man who filches his subsistence from crippled railroads?—a man who, if elected, would be directly connected with schemes which flood the lobby every session of Congress—a lobby whose constant aim is to bribe and corrupt legislation? These are questions based on facts of startling importance to every man, woman, and child in this nation."

Beck spoke at Wadsworth last night to a large audience.

COLORADO.

At last we have the result of the late election in the Centennial State, and now our Democratic friends will need some consolation. For a long time they hoped against hope that they had been successful. The official count gives the Hon. James B. Belford (Republican) for Congress, 1,001 majority; Judges of Supreme Court, (Republican) 1,480, for the Legislature, the Republican majority is 1,933. The Legislature convened on Tuesday. Hon. W. D. Anthony, of Denver, was elected Speaker and Hon. W. U. Webster, of Summit County, President pro tem of the Senate. Yesterday the Legislature canvassed the vote for Governor and State officers. The election by the Legislature, of three electors, will probably be held November 7th. The Legislature stands: Senate—Republican 13, Democratic 7; House—Democratic 18, Republican 31. Exactly a two-thirds Republican majority on joint ballot.

SENATOR MORTON'S VISIT TO NEVADA.

The Carson Appeal very correctly remarks that "not any single influence exerted upon the present campaign has done more for the success of the Republican party in this State than the speeches delivered and exertions put forth by Senator Morton. The masterly manner with which he has stated the issues of the hour has had a very profound impression upon the minds of all the thinking people. The grand facts with which his discourse is so replete, the unanswerable figures and conclusive deductions, these constitute basis and a superstructure which no amount of sophistry can disturb or weaken. The Republicans of Nevada have reason to be thankful to the Senator for his performances in behalf of the cause."

The New York Tribune says as the time for election comes nearer, the independent voter is more and more inclined to give his ballot to the party which with all its faults, has been the truest and best the country has ever seen. He wants a change, but not a change for the worse.

The employés of the Con. Virginia and California Mining Companies will be paid to day $100,378 75 in gold. There will be paid to the employés of the Utah mine, to-day, $4,783; Best and Belcher will pay $3,231; Gould and Curry, $21,000.

A DIVISION of $1 per share has been declared on the capital stock of the Manhattan Mining Company of Austin, payable November 11.

The corporation of Sacramento is having placed in position a new system of Fire Alarm Telegraph in that city.

WHAT JEFF DAVIS THINKS.

"The rebellion seems to be dead, but it will assert itself again!"—Jeff Davis.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Grey & Isaacs, Dry Goods Merchants, Virginia street, have just received their new Winter stock, which for magnitude, cheapness and elegance, can not be equalled in the State. The stock comprises a most gorgeous assortment of the choicest fabrics and colorings in dress goods, as well as the latest hints in silks, velvets and plushes, all at Eastern prices. Magnificent line of cloaks and shawls, at less than San Francisco prices. A complete stock of furs; also fur trimmings by the yard. Their hose is unequalled for style and beauty, and their carpets, house furnishing goods, flannels, blankets, etc., are at least 30 per cent. below San Francisco prices. Ladies will do well to call and examine Grey & Isaacs's stock before purchasing elsewhere, as not only is it the largest and most elegant in the State, but certainly the best and cheapest.

Boots and shoes made to order and neatly repaired at Sunderland's. He keeps everything in the boot and shoe line, and sells at San Francisco prices.

HOW NEVADA WILL GO.

The Carson Tribune reporter has been interviewing Mr. H. F. Bartine, who has been stumping the State for the Republican ticket. Here is the interview:

Question.—Mr. Bartine, what is your honest conviction in regard to the situation in Nevada?

Answer.—I think that Hayes and Wheeler will carry the State by at least one thousand majority.

Q.—How does the Congressional fight stand?

A.—Mr. Wren is very popular in Eastern Nevada, and will run ahead of his ticket.

Q.—How are Leonard's chances?

A.—Excellent.—He will poll the full strength of his ticket.

Q.—How do you estimate the counties? How will Lincoln go?

A.—Have not been in Lincoln, but from what I hear, think it will give a Democratic majority of fifty.

Q.—White Pine?

A.—Will give a Republican majority of about seventy-five.

Q.—Nye?

A.—Very close. Republicans claim they will have a majority of fifty.

Q.—Lander?

A.—Think it will give a Democratic majority of one hundred.

Q.—Barry?

A.—Republican majority of two hundred. Wren will have about three hundred majority.

Q.—Elko?

A.—One hundred Democratic.

Q.—Humboldt?

A.—Close work. Both parties claim fifty majority.

Q.—Washoe?

A.—One hundred and fifty for the Republican ticket.

Q.—Ormsby?

A.—The banner county of the State. Will give three hundred majority for Hayes and Wheeler.

Q.—And the balance?

A.—Douglas one hundred and fifty for the Republicans; Lyon, about the same as Douglas; Esmeralda will give hundred Democratic; Churchill, ton Democratic, and if Storey county does her duty the Hayes and Wheeler electors will have five hundred majority in the bonanza section.

Mr. Bartine's figures are moderate and reasonable. No exaggeration in the least. The outlook is most cheering for the Republicans.
